

mikhail savvateev

students.washington.edu/mikhail3

| (206) 371.3878 | mikhail3@uw.edu |

skills

- Java, Python
- Eclipse, IntelliJ, jGrasp
- HTML, Javascript, CSS
Angular, Bootstrap, PHP,
Leaflet.js, XML, Brython,
SQL, AJAX
- Written and Spoken
Russian, English, Spanish
- Web design
- Photoshop,
Dreamweaver, other
Adobe products
- Microsoft Office,
Excel
- HIPAA Compliance
Certified

education

Junior, Informatics

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON
2013-PRESENT

Student of good standing in the University of Washington Honors Program;
pursuing a B.S. in Informatics.

work experience

Research Assistant

UW BIOMEDICAL NATURAL
LANGUAGE PROCESSING
GROUP
2014-PRESENT

- Redesigned and maintain website for the laboratory. (depts.washington.edu/bionlp/)
 - Automated process to add and remove entries, created web service for data access, redesigned layout, set up tool to track downloads, etc.
- Attend group meetings, contribute to project discussion.
- Assist with preparation of data sets for release and software testing.

Instructor

CODING WITH KIDS
2014-PRESENT

- Manage classroom of elementary and middle-school children
- Prepare lessons and lead classes on programming principles and practices.
- Use a variety of tools and techniques to explain skills to children.

Cofounder and President

NEW LENS TUTORING
COMPANY
2010-2013

- Co-founded and Presided over New Lens Tutoring, a Mercer Island-based company that matched high-achieving students with their struggling peers to ensure that the students falling behind in class had access to convenient, affordable academic help
- Was responsible for the company's marketing efforts, management of employees, as well as the logistics of every session, including scheduling, booking areas for studies, and client communications.
- Personally administered over 15 hours of Algebra and Geometry tutoring to a younger student.

community service

Committee Member

FUNDRAISING PROGRAM FOR WOMEN'S ENTERPRISES
INTERNATIONAL

2011-2012

Instructor

MERCER ISLAND HIGH SCHOOL; GLOBAL YOUTH
LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

2011-2012

- Member and co-founder of a 4-member student committee that planned, set up, and ran an awareness campaign about global awareness, as well as a fundraiser to help African villages gain regular access to clean water.
- Raised nearly $1,000 for the mission, informed majority of student body about the issue.

- Served as an instructor in a school program that brought together students from different grades for a mandatory weekly class fully run by student instructors. Led discussions on school-related topics, explained concepts and policies.
- Returned to the Global Youth Leadership Institute as an alumnus volunteer to assist in running the program, to help with program set-up and logistics, to give instruction, and to give presentations about various topics.

leadership

Co-president

"TECH TIME" CLUB AT UW

2013-2014

Communications Director and Board Member

RUSSIAN AMERICAN
YOUTH ASSOCIATION

2015 - PRESENT

Vice President

RUSSIAN AMERICAN
YOUTH ASSOCIATION
(SEATTLE CHAPTER)

2013-2015

- Club's purpose is to expose people who are not considering or are doubtful about computational majors to the field and to some basic principles of coding, computing, and the internet.
- Helped organize the club, planned meetings, led discussions, coordinated events.
- Serve on board managing all chapters of RAYA.
- Responsible for group's written communications, manage website maintenance and upkeep of other informational materials. Collaborate with chapter leadership to plan and advertise events.
- The Russian American Youth Organization is a cultural organization focused on creating a community of Russian speakers, promoting Slavic culture, assisting Slavic language learners, and encouraging connections and closer ties between people across the globe.
- Responsible event logistics, budget, planning meetings, and attracting new members.

awards

- Mercer Island PTA Council's 2013 Community Scholarship
- PSAT Commended Scholar
- BECU's 2013 Romeo Doty Scholarship
- Qualstar's 2013 Essay Scholarship

- Member of the Mercer Island High School chapter of the National Honors Society and National Art Honors Society [2012-2013]
- Washington's Honors Award
- President's Education Award